LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

Mr. A. M. Hewett has our thanks for a Race Programme.

Mr. Gulick is authorized to collect and receipt on behalf of F. H.
Oeding.

It is probable that none of the inter-island vessels will sail before Monday on account of the races.

THERE will be a hula performance under the direction of the "Dandy" at the Chinese Theatre, Queen street, this evening.

THE St. Louis College Brass Band furnished the music at the Roman Catholic Cathedral this morning, at the 10 o'clock service.

A NATIVE named Namokeha, a luna of a prison gang, was to-day charged with assault and battery on a Chinese-man. Found guilty and fined $7.

THE tug Eleu will leave the P. M.
S. S. Co's wharf at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for Kapiolani Park with the Hawaiian band on board.

THE races at Kapiolani Park will commence at noon to-morrow. Tickets for admission to the Grand Stand may be obtained at the office of J. E.
Brown & Co.

An important underwriter's sale of sundries will take place to-morrow by public auction at the sales room of Mr. Lewis J. Levey, commencing at 11 o'clock.

CAPTAIN and Mrs. Pierce will be away from here about three months.
They have gone to New Bedford, to settle the estate of Mrs. Pierce's mother, who died last fall.

THE Royal Hawaiian Band will play at the races, at Kapiolani Park, to-morrow and Saturday. Consequently, there will be no concert at Emma Square.

THE steamer W. G. Hall from Hawaii and Maui, the Walele from Kauai and the C. R. Bishop from Koolau, Wailua and Waianae, will arrive here early to-morrow morning.

THE gigantic magnolia tree at Hanaelei, Kauai, referred to yesterday, was brought as a small plant from England and planted where it now is, in 1846, by the late Mr. Thomas Brown.

HIS Excellency Geo. W. Merrill and Mrs. Merrill were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Julius H.
Smith last evening. The party also included Senator T. J. Crowley and Mrs. Crowley.

ON Saturday next, June 11th, a Sunday school picnic of the Fort-street and Bethel Sunday Schools will be held on the grounds of Mr.
Chas. M. Cooke, to which all members and their parents are invited.

THE United States Minister Resident, His Excellency Geo. W. Merrill, calls upon all American citizens to meet at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel this evening, to consult in reference to the celebration of the Fourth of July.

AN KEE, of opium bribe notoriety, is reported to be very sick. His inability to meet his financial engagements owing to being swindled out of $71,000 is preying upon his mind so much that he is affecting his health.

AMONGST the trophies to be run for at the races to-morrow and Saturday, there is no mention of the handsome and valuable cup presented by the Hongkong Race Club, several years ago. It is generally understood this trophy is safely stowed away somewhere within the precincts of the Palace.

THE Missouri Senate has passed a Local Option Law.

UPSET AND WRECKED.

Last night, a few minutes after 8 o'clock, an express was being driven furiously along Hotel street, from Fort street towards the Hotel.
On passing the residence of Dr.
McGrew the wheels collided with the iron hitching posts that are fixed there. The driver, Hall by name, was thrown out, the horse thrown down, and the carriage upset. Hall was kicked by the horse. He was taken into Dr. McGrew's, and found not to be seriously injured, but the carriage was terribly wrecked.

GULF WEEDS.

Nine beautiful specimens of the celebrated "Gulf Weeds" (Algae) are on exhibition at Messrs King Brothers' Art Store, Hotel street.
These weeds grow on the bottom of the Gulf of Mexico, are broken off by the currents, float to the surface, and are carried to great distances by the tides. The specimens referred to are pressed and neatly framed. They are a present to our respected fellow citizen, Colonel M.
Thompson, from his son Lieutenant Percy W. Thompson, of the United States Revenue Marine.

THE RACES.

The race programmes are out and on sale at the book agencies. For the Honolulu Plate are entered, Iago, Waterford Colt, Surprise, Poni Moi and Nettle Brown. The Receiprocity Plate claims three entries, viz.: Rockwell, Nisa and Amandine. The Oceanic Purse, a trotting race, will be competed for by Joe Duke, Clementina and Twinkle. For the Waikapu Cup, a 3 mile dash, there are three entries, Queen Kapiolani, Hancock and Patrol. The Breeders' Plate, a mile dash, free for all 3-year olds, has three entries, Ka Aolani, Homat-kawa and Mattie M. The sixth and last race of the day, the Hawaiian Plate, mile dash, free for all, comprises, Rockwell, Queen Kapiol-ani, Col. Gift, Patrol and Amandine.

HORN AT THE RACES.

Mr. F. Horn, of the Pioneer Cake and Candy Factory, will be off to the races to-morrow and the next day. He has no intention of competing on the race track for any of the prizes offered by the Jockey Club. He has simply "entered" for the Grand Stand, and in the race of furnishers of eatables and drinkables for the consuming public. Mr.
Horn is confident of taking first prize for variety, quality, quantity, and cheapness. He is sure to win.
You may bet on Horn 99 to 1. He publishes a long list of articles to be supplied, with the prices attached.
The prices are town prices. There will be no necessity for persons taking along their own food, or starving themselves during the day because of high cost. Any quantity of good grub at the races, and Horn is the man to furnish it.

SHIPPING MATTERS.

Judging from remarks made by captains of vessels now in port, there is a lack of sugar, a stagnation in shipping and a loss of money to the owners of Honolulu packets.
The downward freight of sailing vessels has been rather right of late, some coming here with less than half a load. The discharging of the vessels is done in good style, but just now "it's in the stream and lay up for a month or five weeks." I would rather, said a captain, take a position of second mate on a salary than buy, at a bargain, a half interest in a Honolulu trader to-day.
I have been offered seven dollars to go to the Sound, said another master, and I am figuring to ascertain which way I will lose the least money—stay here until August for sugar, or go to the Sound for seven dollars. The sugar season is pretty nearly over, or as some mills grind all the year round, it might be said that the bulk of the sugar for this season is in; consequently the dullness is just beginning.

INTERESTING CASE OF REPLEVIN.

A replevin case was commenced in the Police Court yesterday before Police Justice Dayton, in which J.
T. Waterhouse, Jr., and Henry T.
Waterhouse trading under the firm name of J. T. Waterhouse, were the plaintiffs, and A. S. Cleghorn and George Markham, defendants. It was alleged that defendants had in their possession and unlawfully detained from the plaintiffs certain goods and chattels, the property of said plaintiffs, to wit, three repeating rifles and one case of cartridges of the value of $80. Whereupon the plaintiffs claimed restitution of said property with $75 damages for the unlawful detention of the same and for costs of suit. Mr. Kinney for the plaintiffs stated that the action was brought against the defendants as private individuals, not in their official capacity. A plea of general issue was entered, and several witnesses were placed upon the stand, including His Excellency Paul P.
Kanoa, Minister of Finance. In the course of hearing it was found desirable to have the evidence of the Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, and in order to admit of this the case was adjudged until 1:30 p. m. to-day.

When Brown opened the front door and picked up a strange baby on the door-steps, he was heard to remark: "Some men are born babies, some achieve babies, and some have babies thrust upon them."

KAWAIAHAO SEMINARY.

The closing exercises or exhibition of the Kawaiahao Boarding School took place at the Kawaiahao Church yesterday afternoon at half-past one. Before that hour the large building was well filled with spectators, among whom many of our California visitors were to be seen. Flowers prettily arranged decorated the stage. The girls, one hundred and thirteen of them, all dressed in white, occupied the seats on the main side of the church under the galleries.

Miss Alexander, the principal, conducted the exercises, assisted by Misses Malone, Brewer, Morley, and pupil assistant Miss Jennie Bates. The opening was an anthem beautifully sung by the whole school, followed by a scripture lesson recited in unison by all. Mr.
Atherton offered prayer. Then followed recitations and singing. A short exercise in Arithmetic conducted by Miss Bates with a class of perhaps thirty was extremely creditable. Miss Brewer's geography lesson developed the fact that our little island corner of the world possesses an astonishing amount of capes, seaports, channels, straits, mountains, rivers, political and natural divisions, besides agricultural and other products. Miss Malone's reading class also showed good work. They read a lesson never seen before, and on questioning showed a knowledge of what they read which would put some English scholars to the blush. A spelling match showed that many of the little girls are getting hold of some of the absurdities and difficulties of English spelling. Their brave efforts excited the applause and sympathy of the audience. The Kindergarten class, conducted by Miss Alexander, showed the perfect attitude of this excellent method to the Hawaiian mind and the excellent music reflected great credit on Miss Morley. The exhibition closed with calisthenic exercises on the grounds without, in which the girls appeared in uniform and went through a surprising variety of motions, keeping time with the tap of a drum.

The shortness of the exercises prevents a comprehensive judgment as to the progress of the school; but it is evident that there has been growth and development during the past year, and most excellent training in all respects. There seemed to be but one opinion among the houseful of visitors, that of satisfaction and pleasure, and when one considers that everything is done in the English language, which some of the girls hardly knew a year ago, admiration increases and homage is paid to the noble band of devoted ladies whose life and strength is given to the work—which consists not in book training only, but of teaching in all branches of civilized domestic life.

THE HAWAIIAN EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION.

The Association resumed its session this morning in Kaunakapili Church. Reports were read of the North Pacific Mission Institute, by Rev. Dr. Hyde; of the Treasurer of the Hawaiian Board, W. W.
Hall; and of the Secretary of the Board, Rev. A. O. Forbes. There have been 15 students in the Institute this year. The studies pursued have been of the same general character as in previous years, special attention being given to the study of the Bible in ways adapted to the limited resources available in the Hawaiian language. Two of the passing visitors to this city have kindly remembered the needs of the school by generous donations. Mrs.
O. P. Wilson, of Cincinnati, giving $25, and Mr. A. S. Borden, of Philadelphia, $20. One student only graduates this year. He takes charge of the church at Kalapana, Puna. The examination is to be held in Kaunakapili Church, tomorrow morning, and the rhetorical exercises in Kawaiahao Church, Sunday evening, with some new hymns in Hawaiian, set to music for male voices.

THE HOTEL FREE LUNCH.

by all who knew them. One Hawaiian missionary, Rev. G. Haina, was lost at sea last July, in going with a company of Gilbert Islanders in a native canoe from Tarawa to Marakei.

The 57 churches have been reduced to 54, by doubling up 6 of the feeble organizations, and making only three. Two parishes have provided themselves with parson-ages; two churches have been repaired, and a new chapel built for some Chinese residents at Kailua, Hawaii. Two native pastors have resigned, Rev. Z. S. K. Paaluhii, of Wailuku, going to the Gilbert Islands, and Rev. W. M. Kolaiwaa, changing from Paauhau to Kailua.
The native pastors find it more difficult from year to year to secure their meagre salaries. Extravagance and excesses are impoverishing the Hawaiian people, and ten-cent pieces are given now where dollars were given before.

The annual tea party given by the Woman's Board to the Hawaiian Association comes off this afternoon in the vestry of Fort-street Church, at 4:30 o'clock.

The annual examination of students of the North Pacific Mission Institute will be held in Kaunakap-ili Church, to-morrow morning, from 9 to 12 o'clock.
